A story of hope:

Joe had been homeless and frequently found sleeping on a porch nearby during the Fall season. Joe has a mental illness and was unable to maintain shelter due to his psychotic state. Joe was admitted to the Enriched Living Center (ELC) in November that year. During his stay at ELC Joe became stable. He began to volunteer at the Mission which led to employment in the community. In time Joe was able to meet his goal of transitioning to a supportive apartment program. Joe often talked about how the Mission gave him support, a safe place to live and a new hope. He developed confidence from his volunteer experience to find employment and then to attain additional goals.
